On Streets and Roads

With the coming of the warmer months of the year the motorists on the highways and streets will find more and more chi-dren on the streets for much longer periods of time and at all hours of the day and the responsibility is therefore the greater to exercise every care in driving. The death toll of children in traffic acci-

The death toil of children in traffic accidents is distressingly large. More school-age boys and girls lose their lives in this way than by any other single cause. Public safety officers believe that the best way to combat this strible toil of young lives is by intensive education of both children and adults in common sense safety habits. Every year in Canada a great many form do in traffic minings, many of which surely can be prevented by proper training drive. Parents, oftwar and all public-spirited citizens have a responsibility in helping to save those precious young lives on whom the truture of the nation and community depends. munity depends.

Search for Oil

Search for oil is one of the major activi-ties of this age. It is not confined to any part of the world for there is a world-wide interest in the wealth and importance which discoveries of oil mean to any nation, when so much of the world's business is carried on with the use of cil. Australia is now expecting to be able to reveal shortly an important source of cil in a vast deposit now expecting to be able to reveal shortly an important source of till as wat deposit of sort coal in Western Australia. This was deposit of sort coal in Western Australia, and the water of interior Minister Riebert berns from a tour of Western Australia, beinging with him amples which he is submitting to the Ministerial Resources Surrey Committee for examination. He says "The deposit which smells strongly of tar and which burns easily, stretches for the submittee of the submit the open road method." The Western Australia Government has exploited the deposit in a small area, mainly for fuel

Production!

Production is the word in Britain. Pro-duction in agriculture and in industry. She has in Vanguard, her great army of r land workers, an agency wh went into action recently and which she trusts will achieve greatly increased pro-duction. There are 200,000 volunteers taking part in the seven-month drive to ers reach their crop targets for 1948. This army of volunteer workers on the farms is one-third greater than it was in 1947. Every one of the one hundred agricultural camps set up throughout the country will be fully manned until the only of the season.

Kilte

"After the New Look again has become the old look, picturesque Scottish kilts still will present unchanged their look of brisk attractiveness. London stylists may be willing to try anything once—but it is once too often when they go to unexpected lengths to 'improve' kilts," says the Stratford Beacon Herald.

The reaction of the Chief of the ancient Cameron Clan, at Spaen Bridge, Scotland, to the reported move of manufacturers to drop the hemline of kilts, a full six inches for the femine export trade, was one of ndisguised scorn.

"'I never heard anything like it,' Sir Donald Cameron of Lochiel declared Donald Cameron of Lochiel declared.

Kilits are not like women's fashions. They don't go up one year and down the next.

They should come in the middle of the kneecap so they just touch the ground when one kneels. when one kneels.

"Doubtless such strict adherence to nicety of design of the traditional High-land costume will find favor with real nen the world over, opines The Sydney Post-Record.

Tarian dresses in the latest mode for women are one thing, but kills definitely are quite another. The wearer of New Look tilts, like the wearer of a plaid neckfie, may achieve self-flattery but little good-will promotion in Scotland.

Water on Wheels

In fighting country fires the perennial problem is lack of water. Time after time firemen have had to stand helplessly by while homes and barns burned to the while homes and barns burned to the ground because there was no adequate supply of water within pumping distant The answer to this problem has now the comparatively dimple. By using tank ticks — like the trucks employed to haul oil and gasoline —freemen can carry their own supplies of water to rural fires. small blaze and hold a big one in check until hose can be laid to a body of water. More and more volunteer fire compan-les now consider mobile tanks an essential part of their equipment. With a fleet of tank trucks, or perhaps by combining the tank trucks of several volunteer compan-ies, rural firemen can fight fires effectively near the blaze, Calgary Albertan notes.

Fewer Quarter-Section Farms

Like most other economic units today, the trend in agriculture is toward the larger farm. This is shown by the latest census figures released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Bureau of Statistics.
The number of quarter-section farms in Alberta decreased in the five-year period from 1941 to 1946 by nearly twenty-two jer cent. This goes far to explain the decrease by-some 10,000 of the total number of occupied farms in that period, from 99,732 in 1941 to 89,541 in 1946.

The decrease in the number of quarter-section farms is offset by the increase in the number of farms of larger size. An increase of more than two per cent of the number of farms covering a complete sec-tion or more is noted, along with the fact tion or more is noted, along with the fact that all size groups from 200 acres up had increased, says Edmonton Journal.

Good Listeners Rare

Those who complain that we have lost the art of conversion are sadly mistaken if they think people cannot talk intelligently.

The trouble is that there are no listeners now as there were in the old days. now as there were in the old days.

It is the art of listening that we have lost, and it is undoubtedly because of the fact that in this day everybody takes newspapers and magazines, and each citizen is so well informed that he wishes to do a great deal of talking. Even when others in the company have the floor, he is not lis-tening, but is turning over in his mind the things he will say when it is his turn to

Good listeners are so rare that when you meet one and notice that he is paying strict attention, you are embarrassed. The novelty of being listened to causes you to whether you are saying anything worth while, comments Sarnia Canadian

May is such a radiant miss

MAY

May is such a radiant miss
There is rapture in her kiss.
She comes tripping into town
With the new look in her gown,
New-blown blossoms in her hair, Not a sign of age or care Or of grief a single trace Stamped upon her youthful face; And the old earth glows to see And the old earth glows to see
One so beautiful as she,
Turns, and as the memories stir,
Winks a twinkling eye at her,
Fancying that youth remains
Underneath the aches and pains
That to all the years bestow As they swiftly come and go. None too old and none too gray To enjoy a date with May.

The West at Work

The work of recovery in Western Europe The work of recovery in western surrope has begun. Last Friday marked the real end of the ten months' preparation started by Mr. Marshall's speech at Harvard. The United States Congress has supplied the resources that give Europe a chance to reilld its economic life; the treaty signed build its economic life; the treaty signed at Paris is the formal promise that the six-teen nations will quicken the pace of re-covery by working together. They are be-ginning cautiously. The permanent organization is a committee that can act only by ization is a committee that can accounty of the consent of all its members. But it its a good organization, and there is good hope that it may outlive the period of American aid. The ultimate objectives to which the sixteen are piedged amount to a genuine economic union of Western Europe, and as the organisation gains experience the scope of the actual co-operation may be widened fairly quickly. — Manchester fans. FATHER'S HOPE

A father wants his boy to be A greater, wiser man than he; Play better with a bat and ball Than he could do when he was small; And when in college, 'tis his dream That he will make the football team, And with a brighter touch of fame Than he could win, adorn his name. No man, though great his own success, Would have a son of his do less. Poor man or rich, his hopes are high That as the years go swiftly by, He'll be allowed to live and see His boy a nobler man than he; And this the prayer he often makes: Lord, keep my son from my mistakes

· Empire Youth Sunday

Sunday, May 9, will be Empire Youth Sunday. This movement has a noble origin, for it was born as a sequel of the Coronation of Their Majesties in May, 1937, when over 10,000 of the young people from all parts of the Empire gathered in London for a great rally in the Royal Albert Hall and to attend the service of dedication in West-minster Abbey, Westminster Cathedral and the Central Synagogue. That was the first occasion in history that youth took any corporate part in the ceremonies of the Coronation. In the Royal Albert Hall, Lord Commation. In the says, and the sex plantists of the sex plantists of the sex plantists of the sex plantists of a century as you come to play world forward at an accuracy and the world, the great problems is benidering, so the sex plantists of government. We vest in you, the duty of guarding what is worthy the blaimer Company to produce a fuel you, the duty of guarding what is worthy the sex plantists of our honor and of all our hopes . . . "

In an article "Youth and the Empire and the World," Major F. J. Ney, M.C., Ll.D., F.R.G.S., tells of his publishing in 1938 a plan for an Empire Youth Movement, a copy of which was graciously accepted by the King, who has since become Patron of the first item in the movement's program, Empire Youth Sunday. Major Ney goes on: "You may ask, 'Why make this your first major operation? to use a war term. The answer is: "To make it clear to ourselves as well as to the world that such a movement as ours must be of a spiritual character.' For that reason we regard Empire Youth day not only as its spearhead, but as that the Youth of the Empire — Young and Old — should join in making a corpor of the Empire - Young ate gift to Princess Elizabeth with the ob-ject of establishing a Princess Elizabeth Empire Youth Trust, That suggestion must await official approval and much planning and organizing will be involved. I believe, however, that not only would such a plan meet with Empire-wide approval but that many beyond its borders, particularly the United States, would welcome just such an opportunity as is presented. It is an ambi-tious scheme, but then so is the Empire, and it must now be obvious that if we are to meet the challenge of totalitarian ideal-ories we must do so on a wide front and on a grand scale. Nothing on a tiddling scale will serve our ourpose.

"Acquisition of a 'Stately Home' in England as an Empire Youth Centre, would constitute major operation No. 2, It would be vested in the Youth of the Empire for all time as an earnest of our conviction all time as an earness of our conviction that its greatest days are yet to be.

"Then there is the Order of Chivalry, described as the Movement's Code of Being and Doing, and ultimately that part of it to which the individual young man or voung woman can belong.

"As its name implies, the Order draws from medieval sources for not a little of its inspiration and pageantry. Much, however, must be done before this can become the great spriitual force in the Movement that, with the co-operation of the Churches, it could and must be if our great purpose is

The Movement has a unique field of inbasis. It should become a veritable crusade for just as war has proved that the foulest of plans can be carried out only by the aid of perverted youth, so will the planning for our happier world, based upon the univer-sal acceptance of the Christian ethic, be won only by the kindled and united idealism of youth. I believe the Empire has in this respect the greatest task of its history.

"In his annual message to Youth on Em-ire Youth Sunday in 1945, the King, as its etron, said: 'At this turning point in history, it is fitting that the young should dedicate themselves anew to the service of God through citizenship in the British Emptre. For bet-ter or for worse, the ideals which they now set before 'themselves will mold world events for many generations to come. If their courses and hope are matched with spiritual force, then indeed, with God's' help, we may achieve mighty things...

In This World of Speed.

From this world of speed there recently passed a man who has done much to speed up the tempo of modern civilization. He was Charles Hare Leonard, who made a product which has revolutioned travel, transportation and other activities of manhalmic earth, to the lands with the habitable earth, to the lands with the habitable earth, to the lands with the habitable earth, to the lands also the sation is just do not be a feed of the sation is just do not be a feed of the lands lands where the oldest criminations exist. He was the inventor of "petrol" as the English call what we know as "gasoline." While this explosive product is known everywhere Leonard's name was naturally

Known originally as "motor spirit" and later as petrol or gasoline, it soon became the standard fuel for internal-combustion the standard fuel for internal-combustion engines of all kinds — automobiles, planes, boats, stationary engines and all the rest. Long before Leonard's death, it had be-come one of the basic essentials of civilization in peace and war, and the found tion of one of the world's greatest industries:

Having invented gasoline, Leonard was faced with the problem of what to keep it in. So he designed the square two-gallor is very roundation. It is fast girdling the Empire, and has clearly proved its worth. Leonard wherever he would have cared to travel across the earth would have been able to see what he and his brother had done to satisfy a need associated with the

No. "Average" Man.
The basic chimical pattern. of Iving differs for every human being, declares Dr. R. . Williams of the University of Texas, which explains, curiously enough, why shochbounds can follow a man by sont. We can thus be told how many out of we can thus be toin now many out of every hundred of us will at the age of 65 have failing arches; suffer from baidness, gingivitis or alcoholism. Birth rates are fix-ed almost to a decimal point and viewed ed almost to a decimal point and viewed with government siarm, and we are collec-tively fold how, when and where we are go-ing to die. But all this leaves the individual curiously unmoved. He revolts against be-ing a per cent and just goes on fitting in with the normal process of a declining civilization in his own way.

We must still remember that science is in its intancy. Basically we are merely arrangements of atoms — some questionably arranged, but still arranged. We sus pect that at some future date a bloodhound may well trace down an objectionable fellow who is found to emit a superfluity of gamma rays; and that others simply go on at a rate of nuclear fission that gi their neighbors a pain in the head. And that mouth wash won't cure it. — Hamilin the head. And ton Spectator.

It's an infant industry, only eight years old, but already more than 100 different organic chemicals more than 100 different organic chemicals have been discovered that stimulate plants

Flood Season

Municipalities which escaped any flood ravages this year may think themselves fortunate, when they read what the water of the rivers of Western Canada has caused in havoc, property loss, loss of human life and in disruption of business.

Combination of - unexpected circumstances, the volume and the timing of spring raims, can often bring disaster at that dangerous period of the year.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1943, Edgar A. Guest) . HOW TO WIN

How to win? Well, I should say There is just one certain way. Should you meet a better man, Do the very best you can.

Be it business or a game, Still the rules remain the same. Do your best through thick and thin, But don't lose yourself to win.

Odds against you bravely dare. Let your every blow be fair. He who stoops to flay the cheat Suffers worse things than defeat.

Howso tempted, never break Honor's code for victory's sake.

Mental Ailments

Health Minister Russell T. Kelly, of On-Health Minister Russell T. Kelly, of On-tario, deserves support in his campaign to encourage a new public attitude to those-who become mentally III. He is endeavor-ing to eliminate the idea that there is a stigma attached to such ailments.

It is not long ago, measured in decades, that these unfortunates were the subjects of public amusement; when people would visit institutions to laugh and joke at them.

Queen Wilhelmina to Abdicate Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands has announced her intention to abdicate the throne of the Netherlands in September in behalf of her daughter, Princess Juliana. The reason for her action is ill-

Her father, King Willem 11, died in 1890 and was succeeded by his daughter under the regency of her mother, the Queenthe regency of her mother, the Queen-Dowager Emna. In 1886 the Queen attain-ol her legal majority and formally took up the reins of government. During the First Great War Holland successfully preserved her neutrality and for the first eight montas of the Second World War, also maintained her neutrality under ever in-creasing difficulties. On May 13, the Queen left for England followed by the Princess and her children. The German atr Princess and her children. The German air force soon crushed Dutch resistance. A provisional government was set up in Lon-don. to. administer the Dutch colonies. Canadians remember that the Princess Juliana and her daughters came to Canada on the suggestion of Queen Wilhelmins. The youngest of the Princesses of the Netherlands was born in Ottawa.

en Wilhelmina has had one of the longest reigns in history. If the regency is counted she has been on the Throne for 58 years. During the late war, in 1942. the Queen visited Canada and the United States and received the gift of a warship for the Netherlands Navy from the United

Dream of Federation

Six hundred delegates from 28 nations in the unofficial Congress of Europe held a few days ago at The Hague have spoken clearly in support of a dream which has been held for centuries — the federation of Europe Two Great Wars which have blasted that Continent and laid their heavy hands upon the entire world and the de-velopments of uneasiness felt latterly have prompted this step, this affirmation of the desire of many lands.

It was made clear that such a federation would require the surrender of some of the sovereign rights of the nations in the in-terests of all in Europe. On the results an editorial writer in the New York Times comments that the reso-lutions may not go far hough to suit some of the enthusiastic supporters of the pro-gram but "that very fact should give all the greater viability to a project which will never be completed by drawing fancy blue-prints, but only by slow, steady and some-times painful organic growth. For that times painful organic growth. For that purpose the recommendations of the Con-gress are satisfactory. They provide for the creation of a European Assembly chosen by the Parliament of the participating nations to advise of immediate practical measures to bring about a European Union; for a commission to draft a charter of human rights; for a court of justice to enforce these rights; for the removal of trade barriers, the restoration of financial stability, and the co-ordination of industrial, agricultural and labor programs."

For people of 28 nations of the Continent which has been the scene of two desent which has been the scene of two dies-perate wars with liberty trampled for a time beneath the Tormer Kaiser's hordes and Bittler's organized tyranny and oppres-sion', to all express themselves is something of utsmost importance. This Congress has dedicated tisel's to the greatest of all issues, the maintenance, or liberty and democracy. That nears the foor to all me. nocracy. That opens the door to all na-ns, the lovers of freedom and nations which have suffered oppression, but which OFF THE EROORD

Czechoslovakia

Csechoslovakia behind the iron curtain was told the other day by Klement Gott-wald that "without the Soviet Union this wald that "without the Soviet Union this new constitution could not have been pos-sible." The democraţie world believes that statement. The Ceech parliament which communism now dominates weted $46 to 0 to accept the Goltwald document on the constitution. There were fifty-four deis-gette who did not voic and there were well on the constitution of the constitution of the statement of the constitution of the con-tinuation of the control of the con-trol of the control of the con-trol of the co

Cleveland Plain Dealer says: "Czecho slovakia needed a new constitution as much as the earth needs two moons. The much as the earth needs two intends. And old one adopted in 1920 with the founding of the republic was one of the most democratic of constitutions and it worked."

Elections are coming at the end of this month. The usual communist one list of candidates will be available.

Out of that land have fled many, yet a few years ago it was a flourishing land of freedom. But that was ended with the nunist coup.

Painlessness

It is confusing to read of one-year-old Beverly Smith, who will never be able to feel pain. Should people be glad for her or sorry?

Pain is not popular, but it has its uses. Little Beverly is already a trial to her par-ents because she goes around bumping her ents because are goes around stanging ner head and burning her hands and thinking nothing of it. If she gets appendicitis, how will they know? If she breaks a leg, she will they know? If she breaks a leg, she may injure herself badly because there will be no pain to warn her to ile still.

If she misbehaves, her parents will not be able to use spanking as a method of controlling her. Scientiste say that if pain were not useful, evolution would have eliminated it. — Calgary Albertan.

WALKING CAST

A pretty hurse, with cold concern, Held high the leg, lest it should turn. A skilful doctor then applied A stocking, inches much too wide And snipped away as much of hose As would display my ugly toes, And then, about my ankle passed The stuff that makes a walking cast.

"A walking cast," said he, "'twill be That leaves you free of thigh and kn Although 'twill weigh almost a pound, With ease you'll carry it around. When once this job is neatly done,
If you should want to, you can run."
With that, above my form he bent
And whistled as to work he went.

I watched him as with fingers deft He splashed the plaster right and left, And round my ankle toiled to make A thing a hammer couldn't break. I said, "Before this cast I use, Tell me if you've paid up your dues? Have you a union card to show From AFL or CIO?"

Most of us have a savings account:

But to make it really mean something calls for planned saving . . . and a strong mind: One way is to work toward what you want most: a new home, a car, an education for your children, the extra security or opportunity that a "nest egg" provides ... Savings can mean so many things ... The important thing is to start ... and to put aside so much a week - svery week. Remember, some are born lucky; smart people save.

The Christian Cru-saders were in the Holy Land for 89 years from 1098 to 1187. Here Napoleon gave up his first dream of world conquest by strik-

A Great Undertaking

What is called the greatest public health undertaking in history is the mass inoculation of the children of Europe against tuberculosis which the UNICEF (United Nations' International Children's Emergency Fund) in co-operation with the World Health Organization, the Danish Red Cross and its Scandinavian associates is ready to begin. Its further extension will depend in large measure upon the support given the UN appeal for Children. Plans call for testing 50,000,000 children to find those who are not yet infected and therefore subject to immunization. It is estimated that two of three European children have some degree of infection, hence it is likely that the inoculation will be given to about 15,000,000 during the present plan which will take from one a alf to two years.

There has been set aside for this work there has been set aside for this work two million dollars for the European phase of the work and another $2,000,000 it is believed will be given by the Danlah, Notwegtian and Swedish governments, already active in anti-tubercular work in Europe.

There will be from 300 to 300 teams, each with a doctor, nurse and technician noded for the program which will be under the direction of Dr., Johannes Holm of

People of today realise the nature of tu-berculosis from experience in their own countries where anti-tubercular services have long been in operation. In the light of the desperate conditions through which so many of the children of Europe had to live during the war, which struck in so many ways at the strength of the nations and the health of the people especially in the conflict occupation areas, all nations reslize the supreme necessity of united action for in a war on tuberculosis no nation can WENTY-ODD years ago a lad of 22 was the youngest member ever elected to Ontario's Legislature. He is still there, and today he is asking you to send him back for his seventh consecutive term - this time as Premier of a Liberal Government.

That man is Farquhar Oliver, who has come far from his Grey County ancestral farm - which he still successfully operates - to the leadership of the Liberal Party of Ontario.

During the past two decades, Farquhar Oliver has widened his horizon in public life. His years of public service have given him a thorough grasp of provincial problems. Yet he still has the vigour of youth, mellowed by mature, experienced wisdom.

His career has been marked by action - no windy words or empty promises for him! As Minister of Public Welfare and Public Works, he helped provide medical and financial aid for the needy and the less privileged. He supported Liberal collective bargaining for labour, and Liberal subsidies for farmers. He successfully negotiated with Ottawa - and will do so again.

These are his assets: honesty, sincerity, reliability, experience, capability, hard work - and freedom from any dictator complex.

Such qualities are what Ontario needs. They will enable Farquhar Oliver to plan and work constructively for all, for a happier, healthier life for all, for a greater Ontario.

... This is Farquhar Oliver - the Man.

Bringing amorican Dollars to Canada

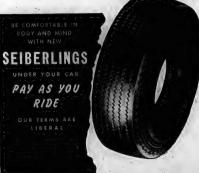

n 1947 Canada's trade with the United States exceeded two and three quarter billion dollars. It is the heaviest two-way trade in the world. Canada's need for American dollars to mustain this trade is vital.

Who brings American dollars to Canada? People who make and export goods; and people who cater for tourists.

And, of course, your bank helps . . . by financing business and industry to expand production for export. This is one of the many ways in which Canada's system of competitive banking serves the Canadian people.

The Canadian Legion, Branch 99, Belleville, are pleased to announce the opening of their new Bus Terminal on Dundas Street, East, on Wednesday, May 19th at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and cordially invite the citizens to come and inspect this new enterprise which has long been needed in our city.

The members of the Canadian Legion are pleased that they're able to serve the citizens who so nobly supported them during the last great war and who donated funds that this Terminal might become a reality and in our small way repay them for the faith they have placed in us. Remember it is your Terminal...to you the citizens of Belleville and to the travelling public we offer this terminal for your convenience. We have installed Rest Rooms, Waiting Rooms and a most up-to-date lunch counter for your comfort.

To the merchants of Belleville .. all parcels going on any bus will be received by our attendants and placed on busses going in any direction at no charge ... just see that your parcels are properly addressed and we will see that the proper bus driver receives them.

To the many bus lines operating in and out of Belleville we offer you this terminal. It is for you...for your travelling public. Please make sure that our attendants have your bus schedule so that they may at all times be able to give correct information to the travelling public

To you, the citizens of Belleville, the Canadian Legion again says thanks for your contributions and for your support in all our ventures.

QUESTION FOR PARENTS

To some stranger on the street
Would you hand your purse and say:
"Care for this till next we meet;
It contains my weekly pay"?
Would you let him have your car
And his name not sak to learn?

Would your folly run so far With a thing you've worked to earn?

Do you leave your watch and rings Loosely strewn upon the curb, Hoping all your cherished things Passing strangers won't disturb? Though we all have moments rash, And do much we never should. Would a stranger's check you cash

How about that girl and boy?
Are they guarded with the care had the water of the care and the water of the care or, without the alightest thought
Of the dangers they may meet,
Do you trust them to be taught.
By some stranger they may meet?
